The Victorian era lasts 64 years, so in fashion history terms, it has to be subdivided beyond the length of reign. The early Victorian era, when Queen Victoria was crowned in 1837, is the Romantic era, but the Victorian era, the 63-year period from 1837 to 1901, that marked the reign of England's Queen Victoria, is a remarkable time in history with the blooming industries, growing population, and a major turnaround in the fashion world. This era was named after Queen Victoria, who ruled the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland from June 1837 until she passed away 64 years later in January.
